Did You Know?

The Construction Industry Is Collectively One of the Largest Employers in the Area.

Hundreds of businesses and thousands of people locally depend on the Construction Industry for their livelihood.

Next time you pass a construction site, think about the positive impact that construction has on thousands of local families. The paychecks they bring home have a "ripple" effect on the whole community - in turn helping boost the local economy!

Smile when you see construction! It's a sign of a healthy economy!
